RE: New List Price Sheet
Effective Date January 2, 2026

As a result of the continued increase in operating costs and raw material, Conduit Pipe Products is announcing a new list price sheet. The new list price sheet CPP 0126 is effective January 2, 2026, superseding list price sheet CPP 0325 and represents an increase of 10% for all Conduit Pipe Products material.

List price sheet CPP 0126 is effective with all shipments beyond December 31st. Conduit Pipe Products reserves the right to limit customer orders based on historical sales data. Please advise the Conduit Pipe Products sales department if this policy requires a change to your previously placed orders.

The Conduit Pipe Products list price sheet, CPP 0126, may be printed from our web site; www.conduitpipe.com after December 15th.

On behalf of the Conduit Pipe Products employees, thank you for your continued support and valued business.

Sincerely,

Mike Ross
Sales Manager
