RE: New List Price Sheet
Effective Date January 2, 2023

As a result of the continued increase in raw material and operating costs, Conduit Pipe Products is announcing a new list price sheet. The new list price sheet, 0124, is effective January 2, 2024, supersedes list price sheet 0523 and represents an increase of 5% for all Conduit Pipe Products material.

List price sheet 0124 is effective with all shipments beyond December 29th. Conduit Pipe Products reserves the right to limit customer orders based on historical sales data. Please advise the Conduit Pipe Products sales department if this policy requires a change to your previously placed orders.

The Conduit Pipe Products list price sheet, 0124, may be printed from our web site; www.conduitpipe.com after December 5th.

On behalf of the Conduit Pipe Products employees, thank you for your continued support and valued business.

Sincerely,

Mike Ross
